DETAILS

Thirteen-year-old Nicole Lovell was missing from the Lantern Ridge area of Blacksburg, Virginia, since the early morning hours of January 27, 2016. Nicole was wearing black jeans, possibly a gray-striped "Mossy Oak" shirt, brown- and-pink "Fat Baby" cowboy boots and may be carrying a blue blanket with yellow "Minions." Nicole was a liver transplant recipient and required daily prescription medicine, which she was without while she was missing.

The remains of Nicole Lovell were located across Virginia/North Carolina state lines in Surry County, North Carolina, on January 30, 2016. The Richmond Division of the FBI, the Blacksburg Police Department, and the Virginia State Police are investigating Nicole Lovell's case. Although arrests have been made, investigators are asking persons with information to please contact the Blacksburg Police Department at 540-961-1150 or the Richmond FBI Office at 804-261-1044. You may also contact your local FBI office or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.
